WATERCOLOR NOTECARDS, SET
OF 6 ASSORTED-$20.00

Watercolor paintings by New England artist Alisa Zalosh are transformed into whimsical art prints and stationery products. Alisa lives in a seaside town north of Boston and spends time each summer on the coast of Maine. She comes from a family of artists, including a 19th century portrait artist whose works hang in Boston-area museums and at Harvard University. As a child, Alisa painted alongside her mother, an accomplished watercolorist, for pleasure; these early years of watercolor exploration provided the foundation for her artistic endeavors
